

Writer's Notebook:

Draw a line and write today's date (4/28/2017). You will have 5 minutes to write freely and continuously about the following prompt:

Select an exchange between at least 2 characters that we've read and change it from Shakespeare's English into any kind of slang or "traditional" English you want. You could use country, valley girl, surfer, lawyer, etc. Have fun and be creative!

For example:

Sampson: If I see those Montague bros, I'm going to give them a mad beat down!

Gregory: Chill out, Sampson, ya wildin' out.

Sampson: If they trigger me, I have something for them.
(He grips his gun to show he is ready to shoot.)

Gregory: Yo, don't be a freak with that gun! Trying to act hard may cost you your life!
