

Active and Passive Voice...using Ratatouille!

Part One: As you watch the movie clip, fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb or verb phrase that matches the action of the characters in the film. For consistency, write all verbs in past tense. Label the doer (D), the receiver (R), and the verb/verb phrase (V).

1. Remy _____ the cyclist.
2. The bike _____ by the cyclist into a car that was parked on the street.
3. Linguini's hair _____ by Remy in order to move his body.
4. Remy _____ Linguini's body movements.
5. Remy _____ Linguini's eyes.
6. The scooter _____ by Colette in front of the restaurant.
7. When Colette arrived, the food _____ by Linguini.
8. Colette _____ the knives.
9. Because Linguini was sleeping, he _____ Colette's story.
10. Linguini's face _____ by Colette.

Circle the sentences that are written in PASSIVE voice. BOX the patterns that repeat in these sentences. In other words, what are some clues that help you figure out they are passive?

Part Two: Rewrite the five PASSIVE sentences above using the ACTIVE voice. Label the doer (D), the receiver (R), and the verb phrase (V).

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

