OMMS 7th Grade Red Team: Blog and Syllabi Acknowledgement Form

I. Blogs and Syllabi

Our blogs, google classroom and syllabi are the primary resources for what is happening in our classrooms for both student and parents. Homework, notes, announcements, classroom documents, contact information, etc. are available here. Bookmark these pages and refer to them regularly, and keep each class' syllabus all year. Read it and discuss it thoroughly. \**Please note that the English teachers are italicized as the student will only have one of these teachers for their English/Literature class. Indicate which teacher the student has for their ELA class.****
