

Foundation Scholarship:

This Memorial Scholarship is established to honor the memory of our beloved mother Mrs. Ora Jones who passed away on March 30, 2011 from Congestive Heart Disease. Throughout her life she significantly impacted and influenced countless individuals by rendering sacrificial service. This scholarship is established with the following goal in mind: to help educate a child in order to motivate them to live out the principles modeled by our mother so that they can demonstrate a life of service by giving back and helping someone else along life's journey.

To be awarded to: a high school graduate of Shelby County or a surrounding area.

Qualifications:

1. Must have an acceptance letter to either a 2 yr. or 4 yr. college or university.
