

Geography
Chapter 11
North Africa Today
(p. 318 – 327)

1. The Suez Canal connects the Mediterranean Sea with the _____. 11-1
2. The Nile River begins in east Africa and flows north to the _____. 11-1
3. The Libyan government is a _____. 11-2
4. The flow of water in the Nile River has been controlled by the _____ . 11-1
5. In Algiers, the older sections of the city are called _____ and are known for there shops and bazaars. 11-2
6. The first known people to live in North Africa were the _____. 11-2
7. Name two mountain ranges in Algeria. 11-2
8. What countries make up the Maghreb? 11-2
9. _____ are underground rock layers that store large amounts of water. 11-2
10. What is the largest city in Morocco? 11-2
11. When the Nile River floods it leaves behind _____, small particles of fine soil that make the land better for farming. 11-1
12. An _____ is a fertile or green area in a desert. 11-1
13. _____ are places of worship for the followers of Islam. 11-1
14. A bazaar is a North African _____. 11-1
15. Sahara means _____. 11-1