

Civics
The President and the Executive Branch
The President and His Job
(p. 166-174)

Answer the following:

1. What are the three rules listed in the Constitution about who can become President?
2. How many electoral votes does it require for someone to be elected President?
3. Name the only president to serve more than two terms.
4. How many electoral votes does Alabama have? Which state has the most? How many?
5. If the President and Vice-President were to die in a plane crash, who would become President? Can you name the person who currently holds that position?
6. What is the Presidents main job?
7. What is the “state of the union”?
8. List and describe the different roles of the President.

Which do you think is most important?

Civics
The President and the Executive Branch
Making Foreign Policy
(p. 175-178)

Answer the following:

1. What is foreign policy?
2. What is the basic goal of American foreign policy?
3. Why is international trade important to the United States?
4. What are treaties
5. Why would the president refuse to recognize another country’s government?
6. What foreign policy tools does the president have to deal with international terrorism?
7. Name two countries where military force has been deployed recently.

Civics
The President and the Executive Branch
Advisors and Agencies
(p. 179-183)

Answer the following:

1. What are the most important parts of the EOP?
2. Why did President George W. Bush create the Office of Homeland Security?
3. What are the duties of the president's chief of staff?
4. What is the role of the Cabinet?
5. Name the duties of the following cabinet departments:
 - a. Department of State –
 - b. Department of Defense –
 - c. Department of Justice –
 - d. Department of the Interior –
 - e. Department of Labor –
 - f. Department of Veterans Affairs –

Chapter 7
Study Guide
"The Executive Branch"

1. What is the most important role of the president?
2. Where does the president live and work?
3. The president has the power to issue a _____, which is a rule or command that has the force of law.
4. What is a nation's overall plan for dealing with other nations?
5. The president may issue a _____ to delay a person's punishment until a higher court can hear the case.
6. A state has as many _____ as the total of its U.S. senators and representatives.
7. What are the qualifications to be President of the United States?
8. Who becomes president if the he and the vice-president die in office?
9. The civil service system is a _____ system.
11110. What is the term for efforts to punish another nation by imposing trade barriers?
11. Who was the first president to die in office?
12. How long is the president's term of office?
13. A _____ is a formal agreement between two or more countries.
14. The Twenty-fifth Amendment makes provisions for presidential _____.
15. The president may grant _____ to pardon a group of people.
16. What is money, food, military assistance, or other supplies given to help other countries?
17. What is the indirect method we use to elect the president?
18. How many electors does Alabama have?
19. What is the basic goal of American foreign policy?
20. What is an agreement among a group of nations that prohibits them all from trading with a target nation?