

Civics
The President and the Executive Branch
Making Foreign Policy
(p. 175-178)

Answer the following:

1. What is foreign policy?

2. What is the basic goal of American foreign policy?

3. Why is international trade important to the United States?

4. What are treaties

5. Why would the president refuse to recognize another country's government?

6. What foreign policy tools does the president have to deal with international terrorism?

7. Name two countries where military force has been deployed recently.