

Extra Credit Opportunity

Mrs. Culver's Advanced English 9

Third 9 Weeks

If you do this, I will drop your lowest test score.

You must do your best and you must present it to the class by the end of February.

Options: Pick one.

Create a tri-board or a Power Point presentation that presents in-depth information on any of the following:

1. The Victorian Period in England
2. The Class Structure of Victorian England
3. The History of Newgate Prison
4. Charles Dickens' life and ideas: Include early family life, turning points, influences on his writing, careers, most important works, and marriages.
5. Read Shakespeare's Hamlet and identify passages from Great Expectations which allude to Hamlet. Explain what they mean to the class. Have illustrations from Hamlet in the presentation. Connect the themes of Hamlet and Great Expectations.
6. London, England in the 1800s: Living conditions, Health, Business & Industry, Daily Life
7. Gothic Revival in Architecture in England
8. Career of a Blacksmith in 1800s
9. Dating & Marriage in England During England's Victorian Period
10. Pregnancy and Child Rearing During England's Victorian Period

I'll be looking for:

Creativity

Neatness---no sloppy work

How much effort/research went into it
