

Subordinate Clauses Functioning as Adjectives

Directions: Put brackets [] the adjective clause in each of the following sentences. Then circle the relative pronoun.

1. Surprisingly, the dish that hit the kitchen floor did not break.
2. My teacher, whom I haven't seen in years, was at the reunion.
3. Students who make good grades in high school often get scholarships to college.
4. She is a person who truly loves bicycling.
5. Erica promoted the app that had become most popular.
6. The football game that draws the most viewers is the Super Bowl.
7. Dianne felt manipulated by her dog, whose big, brown eyes pleaded for another cookie.
8. Always choose the person that you love the most.
9. Laughter erupted from Claire, who hiccupped for several hours afterward.
10. Usually, the vegetables that people leave uneaten are the healthiest.
11. Broccoli, which many people claim to hate, has over eleven essential vitamins.
12. Annette's car, which is brand new, already has a scratch on it.
13. I want to know who took my wallet.
14. The man who wants to buy the car called a few minutes ago.
15. The woman whose purse I found is very happy.
16. The building that he works in is being renovated.
17. Whoever you are, you better come out from there!
18. The house, which had elaborate furnishings throughout, cost over a million dollars.
19. The rules that are in place are there for a reason.
20. Stacie is decorating the house that Eddie built.
21. Marcus has a dog that follows him everywhere.
22. The athlete who trains the hardest will win the race.
23. There are things which cannot be seen with the naked eye.
24. The present that you hid in the garage has suddenly gone missing!
25. The auction at the Paris Opera House which took place in 1905 was open to the public.