

WEEK 5 FYIs: You have an informational passage to read this week and questions ONE through NINE to answer. Make sure you are reading the entire question and then make sure you are answering ALL PARTS of each question.

- 1. ONE question BUT you are directed to cite SEVERAL pieces of textual evidence -- shoot for at least THREE.
- 2. THREE-PART QUESTION -- Make an inference AND cite textual evidence that supports your inference AND highlight words (notice “words” is plural) that supports your inference as well.
- 3. ONE-PART question BUT when you are making an analysis you have to include more than just a thought or two. Shoot for a three-sentence response.
- 4. TWO-PARTS -- pick the best product AND explain your reasoning. In that explanation, you shouldn't just write “Because this is the best one.” Instead, in your answer, explain what your pick has that makes it the best product.
- 5. TWO-PART QUESTION -- Summarize Ms. Walker's contributions AND highlight sentences from the text that support your summarization. So what THINGS (plural) is she best known for? Then, highlight at least three sentences that support your answer.
- 6. TWO-PART QUESTION -- Answer the question AND then provide a plausible speculation (meaning explain your answer to the first part of the question by using actual textual evidence to support your opinion).
- 7. TWO-PART QUESTION -- Determine the meaning of the term given AND give context clues from the text that support your answer.
- 8. SO MANY PARTS -- Create a product line AND give your product a name AND explain its benefits AND explain how you would go about selling your product.
- 9. ONE QUESTION/FIVE SENTENCES THOUGH -- Come up with five sentences in chronological order that best highlight Ms. Walker's life and her accomplishments.

THERE SHOULD BE NO ONE-WORD ANSWERS!!!
