MEMORANDUM

TO: City and County Superintendents of Education
FROM: Michael Sentance ms
State Superintendent of Education
SUBJECT: Greg Ray Memorial Education Scholarship

An Alabama public high school senior will be eligible to receive the Alabama School Transportation Association (ASTA) Conference Greg Ray Memorial Education Scholarship. The Scholarship is named for Greg Ray, who passed away in October 2015. In his long career of service, Greg served as a shop foreman for the Baldwin County Schools, Inspection Program Supervisor for the Alabama State Department of Education, and finally Fleet Manager for the Mobile County Schools. He also chaired the Alabama School Bus Specifications Committee for many years and is noted for starting the Alabama's Best Technician/Inspector Competition for the Alabama School Transportation Association. This scholarship is being provided by Transportation South in Pelham, Alabama, in honor and memory of Greg's notable service to the public schools of Alabama.

The scholarship is a one-time, $2,000 education scholarship awarded to a deserving public school student whose parent or guardian is an active pupil transportation employee for the past three years. A student qualifies by graduating from a public high school and then attending a postsecondary education institution in 2017-2018. Eligible students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA and are selected based on their leadership, citizenship, and service. The $2,000 scholarship can be used for any part of the student's 2017-2018 school year tuition, books, or fees.

Each school system will select a local winner and submit the winning application to the State ASTA Selection Committee no later than April 28, 2017. The finalist will be notified no later than May 31, 2017.

The enclosed scholarship documents provide additional information about the scholarship, including parent and student qualifications, the application form, required supporting documentation, and the selection process to determine deserving students.

To assure that all eligible students have an opportunity to apply for this scholarship, please help distribute this information to your transportation staff and high school counselors. Applications are due no later than April 28, 2017, and the award will be announced prior to May 31, 2017.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this information.

2017 Alabama School Transportation Association (ASTA) Conference
Greg Ray Memorial Education Scholarship

This is a one-time $2,000 education scholarship award made to a deserving senior, public, high school student in the state of Alabama. The scholarship award is made to the postsecondary school selected by the awarded student and to the student.

Application Form Must Be Completed and Received On or Before April 28, 2017

Award Guidelines

1. The parent/guardian listed has been an active employee in a local Alabama public school transportation program for the past three years. (For the purpose of this scholarship award, the past three year's work history requirement is defined as the period since January 1, 2014.)
2. The student applicant has at least a 3.0 (B) scholastic average, will graduate from a public high school, and will attend a postsecondary educational institution in the fall of 2017.

The Scholarship Application must include the following letters of reference:

1. A letter from the parent/guardian's most recent employer verifying employment in public school transportation since January 1, 2014.
2. A letter from the student's high school guidance counselor or other authorized high school official verifying the student's grade point average, anticipated graduation from high school, and planned attendance at a postsecondary, educational institution in the fall of 2017.
3. A letter of support from a teacher or an adult family acquaintance of the student, stating why the award should be made to this student.

State Selection Committee

There shall be a minimum of a three-member State Selection Committee appointed by the recognized state coordinator of pupil transportation services, and this committee may include:

A school district transportation director or administrative assistant
A high school counselor, SDE personnel, school principal, etc.
A school bus maintenance shop foreman or shop supervisor
Members of the Alabama State Department of Education Pupil Transportation Section.

Each committee member will have one vote. By majority vote, the committee will have total authority to select the state scholarship winner based on the above qualifications and any additional factors the committee deems appropriate.

Award Process

Prior to August 1, 2017, the scholarship award will be made to the postsecondary institution that the student will attend. The scholarship cannot be awarded to any student who has a family member serving on the selection committee.
