UNIVERSITY HONORS COLLEGE

University of North Alabama's campus-wide Honors College is open to all majors and includes financial, academic, service, residential, and social components. For outstanding students who want the full honors package, this route may be for you.

Typically, Honors courses have smaller enrollments (15 or fewer), are oriented toward discussion rather than lecture, and involve a greater emphasis on writing and presentations for the grade.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS:

- Agriculture and Forestry
- Allied Health
- Architecture
- Dentistry
- Engineering (DDEP and PREP)
- Medicine (allopathic and osteopathic)
- Occupational Therapy
- Optometry
- Pharmacy
- Physical Therapy
- Physician Assistant
- Podiatry
- Veterinary Medicine

The University's undergraduate courses of study and degree programs provide preparation for admission to professional or graduate schools.
