

The Clint Mooney Scholarship Foundation

Scholarship Details

Clint Mooney attended Columbiana Schools and Shelby County High School through 10th grade, he then attended Thompson High School for his 11th and 12th grade years. He graduated from Thompson High School in 2008 and later attended Auburn University. He loved the outdoors, fisheries, and wildlife management. Clint passed away by suicide in 2017, and it is his family's wish to keep his memory alive through the Clint Mooney Scholarship Foundation, while also fostering awareness of mental health. The Mooney Family has graciously provided a $500 scholarship opportunity for a senior in Shelby County who has been accepted to and plans to attend Auburn University in fall, and one who loves Auburn as much as Clint did.
