Chick Fil A Sandwich Awesome!!!	Everyone knew their facts. You could so tell that they had really done the research!	It was like watching Ellen, Tyra or Oprah! There were a lot of ideas flowing and conversation was moving!!!	There were different opinions but everyone was very respectful of each other's feelings and ideas.	Everyone was quiet while the speaker had the limelight.
McDonald's Plain Hamburger Average	They seemed to know the basics, but they didn't seem to always know what they were talking about.	It was ok. There were good parts. It was almost like watching a rerun of a rerun though. There was no spark.	Alright... Sometimes not all group members were respectful.	Sometimes, they would talk out of turn but not that often.
Peanut Butter and Jelly--- Needs some Improvement	There were some parts of the discussion that were inaccurate and awkward. It didn't seem like they did the work.	It was like the Dead Sea. Don't make me sit through that again.	They need lessons.	Don't be rude!
